LITTLE LEAGUE COACHES

Raiders No Match For Bees In 42-8 Season Ending Loss

Brookville turned Jimmy Ferguson loose for a four touchdown performance and Ricky Cash and Eddie Buck scored one touchdown each to help the Bees to a 42-8 Seventh District football win over Appomattox Friday night.

The determined Raiders stayed close in the first half, but the Bees so dominated the second half of play that Appomattox gave up any thought of winning early in the third quarter.

Ferguson scored on runs of 12, eight, 44 and 54 yards, Cash scored from one yard out and Buck returned a punt for 34 yards and the Bees' final touchdown on a controversial play late in the fourth quarter.

Mac Weaver scored the lone Appomattox touchdown on a one yard quarterback sneak and Keith Coleman added the two point conversion near the end of the first half.

Appomattox could have changed the complexion of the game early in the first quarter when Flip Jamerson recovered a Steve Haper fumble at the Brookville six yard line, but Coleman was denied entry into the end zone on a third down play from from pay dirt. A field goal attempt was aborted when Eddie Bowers bobbled the snap from center and then was thrown down at the nine yardline.

Following a Willie Lipford fumble which Harper recovered at the Bees' 31, Ferguson and Harper alternated carrying the ball to the Raiders' 36 yardline. Bob Fisher then passed 22 yards to Ferguson for a first down at the 16. Three plays later Ferguson scored the first of his four touchdowns from 15 yards out.

Brookville intercepted a Weaver pass on the next series of downs, setting up Ferguson's second score. During the 33 yard drive Fisher passed for eight yards to John Drinkard and Ferguson rushed for the rest of the yardage, going in from the eight.

The Raiders came back strong, taking the ensuing kickoff 80 yards in nine plays, with the big gainer being Coleman's 65 yard run from his own 20 to the Brookville 15.

Weaver then passed to Dicky Kelso for 11 yards, setting up his score which came three plays later.

The Bees came out strong in the second half, scoring the first two times they had the ball, while allowing the Raiders only seven yards total offense for their two series of downs.

The loosly officiated contest was the final game of the season for both teams. Brookville, the defending Seminole District champion finished second in the district with an 8-1-1 record while the Raiders ended the season tied for fourth place with a 5-4-1 record. Gretna, a surprise in the district shared that spot with Appomattox.

Ramsey Tough Both Ways

by Tommy Pittman

On the Appomattox Raiders' 1974 football team the starting offensive center and defensive right tackle spots are manned by senior Mike Ramsey, an athlete who is also one of the leading students academically at ACHS. Mike (6-0, 183) was an All-District Honorable Mention performer last year and seems to be as good, or better, this year. He, along with three other local students, was recently named a National Merit Commended Scholar. Mike also is listed in Who's Who Among High School Students.

Ramsey, the son of Mrs. Anne L. Ramsey of Hunter Street, Appomattox, is in his fifth year of Raider football and third as a varsity starter. He has managed the varsity basketball team in the past and will do so again this year. As a track man in his third year, Mike is a capable shotputter and discus thrower.

Mike takes an advanced course of study and does very well. His subjects this year are government, English, physics and college math, in which he received two A's and two B's. He also received an A for assisting coaches Bragg and Dickerson in sixth period P.E.

Extracurricular activities are very important to Mike. In addition to football, basketball and track, he is president of the Varsity Club and a member of the National Honor Society.

Mike has set his goals high, as a student of his ability should; he says he plans to major in engineering at either Virginia Tech or Georgia Tech.

Like most of the Raider gridders, Mike likes and respects his coaches. Of head coach Jerry Robinson, (whose chief responsibility is the team's backs), he says, "I think he's a good coach. He prepares the backs well for a game." Mike describes line coach George Blanton: "His record speaks for itself - there have been only 14 points scored rushing this year." He adds, "There is more leadership from the seniors this year, and the attitude is really good."

Officials Real Losers In Friday Contest

There has been, and remains, a controversy over the officiating of the E. C. Glass - George Washington football game. The controversy will carry over to next season, and the next.

Of such controversy when the officials are obviously one sided a strong, football rivalry is born. In years to come the reason for the rivalry will be forgotten, but both teams will always give a little extra effort when they play each other.

When the officiating is just plan poor. When the officials do not favor one team over the other, but are glaringly incompetent, no such rivalry will be born, and players of both teams will come away wondering what they have to look forward to as they pass from adolescence to adulthood and have just seen mature adults, supposedly incorruptible and schooled in their vocation, demonstrate inconsistency and apathy to an extreme degree.

Such was the case Friday night as Brookville High School and Appomattox County High School closed out football season at Appomattox. Neither team could in all honesty, say that they had been victimized by the officials in favor of the other team, but both teams were victimized by the officials' lacklustre performance and seeming lack of knowledge of the game of football.

Early in the third quarter Appomattox punted the ball on a fourth down play. David Baxter, a very aggresive player, threw a block on a Brookville player who was standing near the football. The ball's had been position marked by the hat of an official but was still rolling. Appomattox was assesed 15 yards for a late hit.

During the fourth quarter the Raiders again punted. An Appomattox player touched the football near the 35 yard line. The same official marked the ball's positon with his hat. A Brookville player then scooped up the still rolling ball and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown.

The question arises as to which call was correct. Had Baxter blocked a Brookville player on this play would a penalty have been assesed? Or would the touchdown have stood?" One call was incorrect, and the same official had jurisdiction on both plays.

Throughout the contest both coaches were guilty of going on to the field to question the call of an official. Neither coach was assesed a penalty, nor was either coach warned that he was in violation of Virginia High School League rules by being on the field to protest an official's call.

Near the end of the first half one official signaled a time out. The time keeper operating the scoreboard clock stopped the clock. A second official came to the sidelines and ordered that the clock be run down from 22 seconds to seven seconds. We agree with the decision to run the clock down, Appomattox, in possession of the ball at the time, had no time outs remaining, but why should one official not be aware of that? It is his job to know what is going on all the time. If he is not aware of what is taking place on the field he should be replaced.

Another instance occurred when a Brookville punt. Appomattox was detected clipping on the punt return. There is no doubt that an infraction occurred, but instad of penalizing the Raiders from the point of infraction, the ball was returned to the line of scrimmage where a penalty was marked off, with Brookville retaining possession of the ball.

It is our contention that the Virginia High School League should initiate a more thorough training program for officials and that all game officials be assigned from the league office instead of from local associations.

It is obvious that the current method of hiring and assigning officials is not satisfactory. The officials who worked the Brookville-Appomattox game Friday night were not qualified to do the job.

We do not think better officiating would have made any difference in the eventual winner of the game, but the road losers Friday night were the officials.

Enlist in The U.S. Air Force

Michael Pierce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce of Rt. 1, Appomattox, Va. enlisted into the U. S. Air Force's Delayed Enlistment 11 November 1974. His scheduled active duty date is January 20, 1975. He will be entering into the Mechanical Career Field.

Michael is a 74 graduate of Appomattox High School.
